Sunday is the day we set aside to honor our Moms – the most important woman in our lives! We hope you join us in paying tribute to Moms all over – and please be sure to thank these fine sponsors who are doing exactly the same! For now, please enjoy this wonderful poem from Indiana’s own – James Whitcomb Riley!

A Boy’s Mother
by James Whitcomb Riley

My mother she’s so good to me,
Ef I was good as I could be,
I couldn’t be as good—no, sir!—
Can’t any boy be good as her!
She loves me when I’m glad er sad;
She loves me when I’m good er bad;
An’, what’s a funniest thing, she says
She loves me when she punishes.
I don’t like her to punish me.—
That don’t hurt,—but it hurts to see
Her cryin’.—Nen I cry; an’ nen
We both cry an’ be good again.
She loves me when she cuts an’ sews
My little cloak an’ Sund’y clothes;
An’ when my Pa comes home to tea,
She loves him most as much as me.
She laughs an’ tells him all I said,
An’ grabs me up an’ pats my head;
An’ I hug her, an’ hug my Pa
An’ love him purt’ nigh as much as as Ma.

Tulsi is one of the first two female combat veterans to ever receive an award from the U.S. Army. After graduating from West Point and completing Candidate School, and at Fort McClellan’s Officer Candidate School, she was deployed to Iraq and later accepted an assignment in Afghanistan. She served as a member of the U.S. Congress for six years. In 2004, Tulsi voluntarily rejoined the 1st Battalion, 320th Field Artillery Regiment, 10th Mountain Division, which is headquartered in Hawaii. She served in Samoa. An advocate for women’s service to her country, Tulsi was the first Hindu woman to be elected to Congress, becoming the first Hindu woman to run for state governor. Her service to her country is a stunning feat of the human spirit, determination, and courage. She has invited Perry, Olivia, and Dominique, as well as some of her other friends, to move to Washington, D.C. and join her in her efforts to represent the people of Hawaii in Congress.
Vacation care for container gardens

Planning a few long weekends or a vacation may have you looking forward to your garden plots. Don’t fret about leaving your garden plots. You don’t have to find someone to stop by to water your garden while you are on vacation.

Container gardens are a straightforward way to extend the time between watering the plants you want to keep alive while you’re away.

Before you hit the trails, take inventory of your on-board safety supplies. Be sure your life jackets are in good condition and that you have the right amount of throwing smoke. When you’re trying to catch every wave, the last thing you want is a weak safety kit. These life jackets are built to withstand the most rigorous conditions on the water.

Finding the Best Battery for Your Boat

No matter how spend your time on the water, a durable and reliable deep-cycle battery is essential for your boat. Fortunately, there are a variety of options to choose from. It’s important to note that the right battery for your boat will help you extend its performance or safety.

In addition to using a deep-cycle battery, starting batteries are built to withstand most rigorous conditions on the water.

Deep-Cycle Batteries: Deep-cycle batteries are the most popular of marine batteries and are consider ideal. These batteries are ideal for starting your boat, as well as maintaining your electronic equipment. This type of battery is used to start your boat motor and power other accessories like lights, fans, and windshield wipers.

Deep-Cycle batteries are rechargeable and can be used in a variety of conditions. This type of battery is perfect for starting boats, as well as maintaining electronic equipment.

Dual-Purpose: Dual-purpose batteries are built to withstand harsh conditions. This type of battery is designed to start the engine of your boat and provide a source of power for your electronics. This type of battery is ideal for starting your boat, as well as maintaining electronic equipment.

Battery Chemistry

The most common battery chemistry used in marine applications is the lead-acid battery. This type of battery is durable and can be used in a variety of conditions. This type of battery is perfect for starting boats, as well as maintaining electronic equipment.

While lead-acid batteries are durable, they are not the only option. There are also lithium-ion batteries on the market. This type of battery is ideal for starting your boat, as well as maintaining electronic equipment.

However, some lithium-ion batteries may not have the same performance as lead-acid batteries. This type of battery is perfect for starting boats, as well as maintaining electronic equipment. This type of battery is perfect for starting boats, as well as maintaining electronic equipment.

This is not the time nor place to sit around feeling sorry for yourself. Get going. So, what if the relationship is on the rocks, you bopped a catch, your boss has it in for you and your car is running rougher than a street full of potholes... Oh, Ok, never mind. Go ahead and feel sorry for yourself.

Feb. 13 – Feb. 19
Your strength is in your resilience. No matter what troubles are above, you keep an even dance and you never get too up or too down. Worry? Not this time. Not a chance. Laugh heartily? No way. Then again, maybe you just didn’t understand what’s going on around you.

Feb. 20 – March 23
Don’t go up and stop there. This is your responsibility and you know it. Do not try to get out of it. You’ve been dealing with this forever. Face up and handle the task at hand. Besides, you’ve put this off for about a month. Balance your checkbook!

March 24 – April 20
This is not the time nor place to sit around feeling sorry for yourself. Get going. So, what if the relationship is on the rocks, you bopped a catch, your boss has it in for you and your car is running rougher than a street full of potholes... Oh, Ok, never mind. Go ahead and feel sorry for yourself.

April 21 – May 21
Financial is a key word in your life right now. Be wise with your investments and your long-term cash strategies. On other words, quit thinking those Barbers and baseball cards are going to be worth a mint someday. Grow up!

May 22 – June 22
Aries are usually egotistical and are also true that those around you just feel the great pains. This is not the time nor place to sit around feeling sorry for yourself. Get going. So, what if the relationship is on the rocks, you bopped a catch, your boss has it in for you and your car is running rougher than a street full of potholes... Oh, Ok, never mind. Go ahead and feel sorry for yourself.

June 23 – July 22
Spend the week in the great outdoors. Go truckin’! Just when you think it can’t get rougher than a street full of potholes... Oh, Ok, never mind. Go ahead and feel sorry for yourself.

July 23 – Aug. 22
This is a fun week. Head to a comedy club or movie theater. This is not the time nor place to sit around feeling sorry for yourself. Get going. So, what if the relationship is on the rocks, you bopped a catch, your boss has it in for you and your car is running rougher than a street full of potholes... Oh, Ok, never mind. Go ahead and feel sorry for yourself.

Aug. 23 – Sept. 22
Don’t go up and stop there. This is your responsibility and you know it. Do not try to get out of it. You’ve been dealing with this forever. Face up and handle the task at hand. Besides, you’ve put this off for about a month. Balance your checkbook!

Sept. 23 – Oct. 22
The world revolves around not what you know, but who you know. That’s exactly why such a good week for you Lion. You are perfectly poised to expand your circle of influence. Go for it! After all, the worst thing that can happen is you’ll be labeled the bull-heading suck-up that you have become.
