THREE THINGS You Should Know:

1 Italian authorities have hired a new guard to protect the ruins of the ancient city of Pompeii – a tireless patrol dog, reports the Association of Mature American Citizens. What breed of dog, you ask? It's a 21st century "quadruped robotic dog" with the not-so-21st century name of Spot. Gabriel Zuchtriegel, director of the Pompeii Archaeological Park, says "Often the safety conditions within the tunnels dug by grave robbers are extremely precarious, and so the use of a robot could signify a breakthrough that would allow us to proceed with greater speed and in total safety."

2 Ivy Tech Community College Lafayette is hosting First Step to Finish, an on-campus open house event to help prospective students take the first step toward their future. The event will be held on April 26 from 3 to 6 p.m. on Tue, April 26 on the Ivy Tech Lafayette campus at 3101 S. Creasy Lane. The public is invited. Registration is not required, but visitors are encouraged to RSVP at link.ivytech.edu/FirstStepToFinish. For more information or to RSVP by email, contact scertano@ivytech.edu.

3 The fourth annual 4.01k Race for Financial Fitness is back in person! Pledging to raise money to improve financial literacy for school-aged kids across the country, the 4.01k Race for Financial Fitness™ will kick off at the Monon Rail Trail at Big Lug Canteen with a post-race Well-a-Bration on Sunday, June 12th. Hosted by ProCourse Fiduciary Advisors, local race proceeds will benefit Junior Achievement of Central Indiana to promote students' financial literacy. Everybody Wants to Belong

Everyone wants to belong, and after two years of the pandemic, HUE (Humans United for Equality) plans to bring together the community with the Celebration of Unity after a two-year hiatus. Volunteers for HUE and sponsoring churches and organizations canceled the annual event in 2020 and postponed its scheduled return last September. Finally, on April 23, the Celebration of Unity returns. It's unique among the community events in the city because it's designed to be free, open to families, and chock full of activities for everyone from toddlers to adults.

HUE member Jennifer Abbott said the Celebration of Unity excites her because it celebrates our county's diversity and strength, the same strength that represents the American experiment.

"It's kind of like that saying on the dollar bill, E. Pluribus Unum- out of one many," said Abbott, who thinks this event is unique compared to other cultural events throughout the year.

"What other activities do we have where everyone is invited, where it is free, and it brings us together to celebrate our differences? Everyone should feel welcome. Everyone should feel seen and invited." She hopes it will foster a sense of belonging for everyone in our community.

Abbott invented one of the popular activities at the Celebration, The Game of Life, which she has tweaked and improved over the previous events. This year, she and her husband Michael Abbott invited Wabash students to use game design to put a new spin on traditional fair games like the basketball toss, corn hole, hula hoops, plinko,

Spring time is the best, isn't it? A lot of us are worn out from the winter . . . tired of bundling up in 112 layers just to go out to get the mail . . . tired of worrying about pipes freezing . . . tired of wind-chill . . . tired of it all. Spring, that eternal time of rebirth, brings all (OK, most) of that to an end and we feel a little more optimistic . . . and better . . . so long as we don't watch the nightly news.

With that in mind, there are some events coming up that go hand in hand with feeling good. With an apology to the so-many other events that aren't included (just send me your info and it will be going forward!), here's

Mayor Offers Endorsement

Dear Editor,

Voters have two choices for Montgomery County Auditor in the 2022 Republican Primary, and both candidates are good people serving in Montgomery County government.

Significant expansion projects by industries such as Closure Systems International. Unfortunately, this growth in our tax base will be occurring at the same time as profound changes to the structure of business personal property tax enacted by the Indiana Legislature.

The county auditor, among many responsibilities, plays a crucial role in ensuring property tax rates are correctly administered. This includes applying the rates from different taxing units, deductions, exemptions, and any abatements that might have been granted.

All of these factors are coming together simultaneously to further complicate an already complex process, and the importance of a county auditor with experience is more crucial than ever.

We are entering a critical time in our community, and maintaining continuity and experience in the auditor's office is imperative to navigating upcoming changes. Successfully doing so will allow local units of government, such as the City of Crawfordsville, to function properly while ultimately protecting residential and business taxpayers.

Mindy Byers currently serves as the Chief Deputy Auditor and possesses over seven years of experience in the auditor's office. She combines experience with a dedication focused solely on the auditor's office and to ensuring its accuracy and efficiency.

The next couple of years will see many changes to our tax base, such as the arrival of Tempur-Sealy and signif-

I am proud to endorse Mindy Byers and encourage you to please give her your vote so that we maintain experience in the auditor's office and avoid starting over during such a challenging time.

Sincerely,
Todd D. Barton, Mayor

event led by Gwynn Wills, certified Amherst Authors and Writers Workshop Leader on Thursday, April 21, from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Marie Canine Plaza. Participants will have the opportunity to write poems with inspired prompts from the AWA Method and artwork from local artists. The event is free to the public and an RSVP is recommended though not required. In case of inclement weather, the event will be held indoors at Fusion 54. Come on out and experience the joy of writing. Contact Gwynn at (317) 345-5306 or gwills6735@me.com to reserve a spot or to answer any questions.

And one other quick note on this event. A while back, someone offered a suggestion that much of the focus of Athens Arts was on painting and sculptures and that sort of art, not the written word. Kudos to the powers that be at Athens for making this happen!

IT'S THAT TIME of year for Character Counts! And the Character Counts Board is now accepting nominations for the following awards. Please consider nominating a deserving candidate(s). Nomination forms must be submitted or postmarked no later than Friday, April 29. There are three easy ways to participate. Send nominations to Jennifer Coyle at 1010 Lane Avenue, Crawfordsville, IN 47933 or e-mail it to her at jecoyle@cville.k12.in.us. You can also nominate online at <https://forms.gle/HQPYczV9pLAPijvPA>

What are the categories? Oh, c'mon! We know these by heart now, don't we? They are:

Business/Industry Award: A business or industry that has demonstrated the Six Pillars of Character (Trustworthiness, Respect, Responsibility, Fairness, Caring, or Citizenship) in its professional culture and climate. There will be 1 business or industry honored.

Champion of Character Award: An individual, who has demonstrated the Six Pillars of Character, made difficult choices, acted with generosity and self-sacrifice or performed community service.

Community Award: An organization that has developed an active community task force to support the Six Pillars of Character (Ex. Scouts, Honor Society, Service Clubs, etc.).

Educator of Character Award: An educator who teaches and models the Six Pillars of Character and has impacted students through innovative character development and education (possible examples: teacher, administrator, bus driver, secretary, etc.).

Pursuing Victory with Honor Award: An athlete or coach who demonstrates and models commitment to the Six Pillars of Character.

ONE GROUP that does a huge amount of good in our community and rarely gets an appropriate amount of recognition is the Volunteers for Mental Health. Well, let's rectify that right now and at the same time promote their one-day in-person training for Mental Health First Aid focused on assisting our youth. It is scheduled to take place Thursday, May 5 at Hoosier Heartland State Bank's Success Center on 231 South.

Any parent, teacher, provider, first responder or interested individual is invited! Pre-registration is required at least two weeks prior to the event. The registration fee of $20 includes the training, all materials, snacks and lunch. Each participant who completes the course work will receive certification.

Two experienced certified trainers will lead the workshop. Alicia Criswell of Warrick County Purdue Extension and Carla Kidwell of Purdue Extension - Wayne County. Registration is open on-line and a maximum of 30 participants is permitted. To access the registration portal, visit <https://event.me/zkAaNw>. There's also a link on the VMHMC website (vmhmc.org) to complete the registration process. Questions concerning the program, registration, or scholarships may be directed to VMHMC Board President, Denise Booher Walker at (765) 275-2689 or by e-mail at dbw@vmhmc.org. Co-chair for the program, Chasity Surface of HHSB, can be reached at (765) 401-1922.

AND LAST BUT certainly not least, the Montgomery County Master Gardeners' popular Second Annual Plant Sale, which will include the popular Nucor Tree giveaway, is scheduled a few days later on Saturday, May 7 from 8 a.m. to 1p.m. at the Montgomery County Fairgrounds.

A variety of flowering hanging baskets, tomato and pepper plants, flowers and herbs will be available to the public. The sale will be set up under cover of the poultry shelter, next to the show arena where Nucor will handle the tree give-away. Inside the 4-H exhibit hall will be demonstration booths, a kid's corner and booths with information regarding local non-profit organizations in our community.

What a great way to kick off the 2022 spring/gardening season

I'VE SAID IT before and will continue - ain't Montgomery County great!

and twenty-one. Players will be given a character card and experience walking in another's shoes as they compete. While the Game of Life is for older players, parents can have their kids make friendship pins and handprints for change. They can design a freak flag, work with a videographer to share about different kinds of families, and test their knowledge of world religions.

One of the goals of the event is to feature food, music, and performances from many continents. Though visitors can grab a free hotdog, let their kids jump in the bounce house or climb the rock wall (also free), tacos may be purchased from Aki Le Voy and soul food from Norvells while enjoying performances by Irish dancers, the mariachi band Zelaya, and Dance by Deborah. The event will be a culturally rich celebration.

Additional sponsoring organization will also have activities. The League of Women Voters will offer kids a chance to learn how voting works by filling out a ballot and remind parents how to vote in the May primary. Other booths will offer activities and goodies. The Carnegie Museum will give out bags to carry the free swag and crafts.

Beyond the fun, HUE hopes that visitors will have conversations with one another.

"We've been longing for that person connection and that's what HUE is all about," said Kochert. "We want actual human connection, face to face without a device. We want conversation. It will help bring us out of this funk we are in as a human society." She hopes it will be a springboard for unity and an appreciation for the diversity that makes communities resilient.

For those who want to learn more, go to HUE's new website: <https://www.huemoco.org/>, or volunteer with the MoCo's new volunteering app PointApp.org or <https://lwvmontinco.org>. Most of all come to Pike Place on April 23 from 4-8pm and enjoy one another's company.

- The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan, multi-issue political organization which encourages informed and active participation in government. For information about the League, visit the website www.lwvmontinco.org; or, visit the League of Women Voters of Montgomery County, Indiana Facebook page.
