FACES OF MONTGOMERY

People who call our community their own.

THREE THINGS You Should Know:

1 You don't want to mess with Tamara Walcott of Laurel, MD, suggests the Association of Mature American Citizens (AMAC). She's the new Guinness World Record holder for cumulative weightlifting, having won the title by lifting a combined total of 1,620.4 pounds in a squat, bench press and the deadlift competition in Manassas, VA sponsored by the World Raw Powerlifting Federation. Tamara lived up to her motto that says, "the impossible is possible."

2 A media tip helped fire investigators locate a woman now charged with attempted arson, criminal recklessness and other charges in connection with a Kokomo apartment fire last week. The apartment unit featured video surveillance of people entering the main entry door. Video surveillance footage shared to the media led to the identification of Gwendolyn Reggs, 25, of Bunker Hill, Ind. After her arrest, Reggs indicated there was a long-standing dispute between her and a female occupant of the apartment whom Reggs said had been harassing her. Reggs was booked into the Howard County Jail.

3 The annual golf scramble for the Montgomery County United Way is scheduled for Sept. 9 at Rocky Ridge Golf Club. It kicks off with breakfast at 8 a.m. and a shotgun start at 9. As play wraps up, the campaign kick-off luncheon will take place at noon. To sign up as a sponsor, contact United Way's Montgomery County Director Gina Haile 362-5484 or chair Michele Hunley at 505-8132. ## 2022 TASTE! Of Montgomery County To Feature Three Musical Acts

The General Lew Wallace Study & Museum is pleased to announce the musical line-up for the 2022 TASTE! of Montgomery County.

The Elizabeth Lee Duo opens the day's entertainment at 1 p.m. A father-daughter duo, Elizabeth Lee and Bobby Pugh are singer-songwriters with an emphasis on clear vocals and harmonies. They perform chill covers from generations ranging from the 40s to now. (Although Elizabeth has to remind her dad daily of the more modern artists and songs.) They also include a few original songs from their album. You can check out their style ahead of time by visiting their social media pages or website. They are very excited to be playing in Crawfordsville, as Elizabeth's dad, Bobby Pugh, is from Crawfordsville.

Playing from 4:30 - 6:30 p.m. will be Eliana Weston. Though Eliana is Indiana raised, Nashville is the true destination of her soul. Known for her big, blonde hair and glowing personality, she has built a dedicated fan base by singing to your soul and not being afraid to let her heart lead her. Weston is well known for her country singing with a splash of blues and rock sprinkled in.

Eliana has always loved pursuing the up and coming music while continuing to sprinkle up her shows with music from any decade. Her playlist is a true time traveler's dream with a thorough mix of Elvis, Dolly, and Carrie Underwood.

Eliana is determined to make her music be more than just a catchy tune, but something that impacts and gives people a moment to just breathe and enjoy a guitar riff. Weston performs on her guitar (Elvira) and spends most of her time songwriting in Nashville (expect original music soon). She loves playing shows with her band while on a quest to find the best BBQ.

Country And Western Gets It Right

TIM TIMMONS
Two Cents

Never was a big fan of country music. When I was a little guy sitting in the back seat of Mom and Dad's Chevy, the radio was always tuned to WIRE, 1430 on your AM dial. The "Country Gentlemen DJs, Ken Speck, Lee Shannon, Jan Ford, Jerry Chapman and Don Schlademan spun the records of Porter Waggoner, Loretta Lynn, Gene Autry, Ernest Tubbs, Minnie Pearl, Grandpa Jones and more.

The kid in the backseat, however, was more of a fan of Dionne Warwick, Petula Clark and a new group called the Beatles.

I remember arguing with Dad about what station to listen to . . . so, yeah, I learned a lot about country growing up.

(By the way, I did listen to WIRE at night because they carried games from the best team in the ABA, our own Indiana Pacers. And in the summer, you could catch Chicago White Sox games.)

Still, I developed a pretty natural dislike of all things with a twang.

Boy how that's changed!

Gone are the days when everybody's cheating heart was doing somebody wrong, pickups that always broke down and ol' bluetick hounds that just up and died. Today's country, of which I am a big convert, has lyrics that sway to the good parts of life. And do we need that now!

Wine, Cheese And Women's Equality Day

What do wine, cheese, and women's equality have in common? A) Aug. 26, B) Democracy, C) The League of Women Voters, or D) All the above.

The League of Women Voters, open to men as well as women, is a nonpartisan, multi-issue political organization that encourages informed and active participation in government. For information about the Montgomery County LWV, visit: www.lwvmontcoin.org or message to LWV, PO Box 101, Crawfordsville, Indiana 47933.

Crawfordsville Airport from 5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. The evening is a chance to chat with members about what the League does in 2022 here in Montgomery County.

Historically, the League of Women Voters, which emerged after the suffrage movement succeeded in 1919, is committed to the ongoing work of educating and engaging fellow citizens in protecting the right to vote.

Women's Equality Day is a special day for members. While the 19th Amendment was ratified on June 4, it wasn't until Aug. 26, 1920, that the words "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged . . . on account of sex" were certified as a constitutional right. Fifty-three years later, Women's Equality Day was recognized in a joint congressional resolution.

The Wine, Cheese and Women's Equality event is the fourth

For Your Information

If you are one of the many who were Readers' Choice winners in our annual huge recognition promotion, you may be getting e-mails from Showmark, a company trying to sell plaques and such. Please know, that has nothing to do with our company and the actual Readers' Choice program. For years, we have produced the annual popular Readers Choice contest and we give, absolutely free of charge, certificates suitable for framing to our winners, runner-ups and honorable mentions. We're not familiar with this Showmark group, and we certainly don't blame them for trying to wiggle in to one of the biggest contests around, we just want you to know we have never charged a penny for those recognized - and we never will!

PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF DECLARATORY RESOLUTION AND PUBLIC HEARING RELATED TO THE DESIGNATION OF AN ECONOMIC REVITALIZATION AREA IN THE TOWN OF LADOGA, INDIANA (10 YEAR PROPERTY TAX ABATEMENT FOR THE INDIANA MUNICIPAL POWER ASSOCIATION SOLAR PARK)
 You are hereby notified that on July 11, 2022, the Town Council of the Town of Ladoga, Montgomery County, Indiana (the "Council") adopted a Resolution entitled a "Declaratory Resolution for the Designation of an Economic Revitalization Area." You are further notified that by law the Ladoga Town Council will hold a public hearing to consider confirming, modifying and confirming, or rescinding that Declaratory Resolution.
 Pursuant to IC 6-1.1-12.1, the Declaratory Resolution designates certain land in the Town of Ladoga, Indiana (the "Area") as an Economic Revitalization Area. The land owner and applicant, the Indiana Municipal Power Agency (the "Applicant"), is planning to purchase and install electrical generating solar panels and related equipment for a solar park located North Cherry Street in Ladoga, at an estimated cost of $2,000,000 (the "Project"). The Declaratory Resolution also finds that the benefits of the Project justify the granting to the Applicant deductions to its payments in lieu of taxes ("PILOTs") on real property and personal property used for these generation facilities, which are equal in amount to the property taxes that would otherwise be assessed, and which, pursuant to IC § 8-1.2-2-22, are treated in the same manner as taxes for purposes of all procedural and substantive provisions of law, for a period of ten years pursuant to IC 6-1.1-12.1. A copy of that Declaratory Resolution, which includes a description of the Area, is available and can be inspected in the office of the Montgomery County Assessor at the County Government Building, 1580 Constitution Row, Suite A, Crawfordsville, Indiana, and/or at the Ladoga Clerk-Treasurer's office at the Town Hall, 121 East Main Street, Ladoga, Indiana.
 This public hearing will be held at the Town Council's monthly meeting on Wednesday, August 31, 2022, at 3:00 p.m. at the Town Hall located at 121 East Main Street, Ladoga, Indiana. At this public hearing, the Town Council will receive and hear all comments, remonstrances, and objections from interested persons with respect to the Declaratory Resolution. After considering the evidence, the Council will take final action determining whether the qualifications for an economic revitalization area have been met and confirming, modifying and confirming, or rescinding the Declaratory Resolution. This determination will be final, subject to certain rights to appeal under IC 6-1.1-12.1-2.5.
 This notice dated this 13th day of August, 2022.

Think not? Before he retired, there was a weekly column called Focus on the Family by the wonderful James Dobson. It was maybe a decade or three ago that he wrote about the influence of modern music on young people. He pointed out that some folks grew up listening to the wholesome tunes of Pat Boone, Doris Day, the Everly Brothers . . . He compared those to modern lyrics that talked about killing cops, killing parents and well, just killing.

His words fell on the deaf ears of a nation already on a moral spiral downward. Of course it's gotten worse since then. Way worse. There really wasn't much graphic carnage on video games before, at least nothing at all like now. Pornography, death, violence and all the darker sides of society are as prevalent and accessible on the Internet today as energy drinks and cell phones. If we were on a bad path then, it's hard to put into words where we are now.

Enter country music. If you haven't listened, or grew up like me, it might be worth tuning in. You can hear Luke Combs singing about everlasting love: "They say nothing lasts forever, but they ain't seen us together. Or the way the moonlight dances in your eyes. Just a T-shirt in the kitchen, with no make-up and a million other things that I could look at my whole life. A love like that makes a man have second thoughts. Maybe some things last forever after all."

Or maybe you'll catch Blake Shelton singing about farming during the week before breaking bread on Sunday because we're proud to live in God's country.

Luke Bryan tells us that instead of carrying on, we need to country on.

And Bryan and Jordan Davis have a song that simplifies things and tell us to "Buy dirt. Find the one you can't live without, get a ring, let your knee hit the ground. Do what you love but call it work, and throw a little money in the plate at church. Send your prayers up and your roots down deep. Add a few limbs to your family tree/ And watch their pencil marks and the grass in the yard all grow up. 'Cause the truth about it is, it all goes by real quick. You can't buy happiness. But you can buy dirt."

It's not all as pure as the driven snow. There's a little partaking of cold beverages.

Billy Carrington tells us that God is great and beer is good. Or Chase Rice sings that he's "Killin' time, livin' life with some down-home friends. When the world's gone crazy, man, it all makes sense. Sittin' here, drinkin' beer, talkin' God, amen."

You'd probably expect a bit of rough-necking in country songs, and Toby Keith reminds us that we sure can fight when we need to, like defending the red, white and blue.

The bottom line to this old radio fan is that we are desperately in need of some lyrics that remind us what's important. The negative and insanity in our world today is like the toothpaste that won't go back in the tube. But maybe, just maybe if we tune in to the good stuff, the all-American, patriotic, faithful and God-fearing good stuff, it'll turn out alright.

Like my favorite country legend Steve Wariner sings, "That's how I know there's still a little magic in this crazy world."

under the leadership of Helen Hudson, who has served as president and co-president since 2019. As the centennial of the ratification approached in 2019, members of the League cajoled Hudson into taking on the role. Since Hudson began overseeing Indiana's second largest League, she's stamped the League's work with her energy and passion. She brings together citizens in the bi-partisan work that distinguishes the League. In addition to annual member roles such as participating in the observer corps – members attend government board meetings both learning how they work and reporting observations to fellow members- she has invited members to join study committees such as education, health, climate, economic health and housing that align with their concerns. Furthermore, Hudson has made Women's Equality Day and Centennial celebrations extraordinary.

During her first year of leadership, the League spearheaded a spectacular celebration of the centennial of women's right to vote with choral singing of suffragists' songs, a gathering of 300 hundred celebrants at the library, and a short march with women in white. Members recreated the banners, costumes and sounds of 1919. Mayor Todd Barton and Representative Sharon Negele spoke. Women from local industries represented Pace Dairy, Home Depot and other industries.

In her second year, Hudson recruited a committee and teamed up with the Crawfordsville Public Library to create The Legend of the Legendary League. It started as a slide show about suffragists from our county, women of color who advocated for the right to vote and the history of the women's vote in the country. Every other month Nick Hedrick, Shelbi Hoover, Stephanie Cain and the team presented the slide show at the library. On alternating months the League and library partnered for the Well-Read Citizens Book Club.

The Legend program can still be found on YouTube with a search for the Legend of the Legendary League here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gO8x-S95FFP0>.

Even though the pandemic shuttered many events in 2020, the League continued to celebrate local women who worked for equality. League member Shannon Hudson penned the biography of Dr. Mary Holloway Wilhite. Last Aug. 26 the League finally dedicated the national marker that honors Dr. Mary Holloway Wilhite and stands adjacent to Wabash College's entrance on the corner of Wabash and Grant.

The pandemic put many of the League's annual tasks on hold and now it's ready to engage citizens with their local government again. The League is excited to host this in-person mixer and invite local residents to explore becoming part of the League, participating in the observer corps and encouraging everyone to cast their vote.

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan, multi-issue political organization which encourages informed and active participation in government. For information about the League, visit the website www.lwvmontcoin.org; or, visit the League of Women Voters of Montgomery County, Indiana Facebook page.
