People who call our community their own.

Ranger is a 1 year old pit bull mix who has the goofiest ears ever! He is very smart and affectionate. For the rest of August, the Animal Welfare League is sponsoring a "Clear the Shelter Event" in which all adoptions are half-price. If you are so inclined, please check out sweet boys like Ranger and others, or make a small donation. You'll be glad you did.

➔ THREE THINGS You Should Know:

1 Bring your kayak for a tour upstream of Patoka Lake beginning from King's Bridge Boat Ramp on Sept. 11 at 10 a.m. Bald eagles, beaver and other wildlife can be seen along the two-hour journey to Grimes Lake Marsh. Plan to arrive by 9:45 a.m. to sign in and get your boat in the water so the trip can leave promptly at 10 a.m. Bring refreshments, life vests, sunscreen, binoculars, and cameras. Non-motorized boat launch permits are required and will be sold at the event for $5. Permits can also be purchased at the Patoka Lake office from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily. For more information regarding this program or other interpretive events, please call the Nature Center at (812) 685-2447. Patoka Lake (on.IN.gov/patokalake) is at 3084 N. Dillard Road, Birdseye.

2 The Teachers Friend Program is returning to Montgomery County, courtesy of the Volunteers for Mental Health in Montgomery County. Until it had to be paused due to Covid protocol in the schools, the Teachers Friend program, was administered by Volunteers for Mental Health in Montgomery County as a method to match volunteers to teachers who need an extra hand. Teachers register their needs with Volunteers for Mental Health, and community volunteers are matched to that teacher. Just visit the Volunteers for Mental Health website www.vmhmc.org and click on the yellow volunteer registration button to learn more details as well as choose your time and school for volunteering. You may also volunteer on the Montgomery County Leadership Academy POINT volunteer app https://events.pointapp.org/11313.

3 Sometimes you get more than you bargained for. Take the Overland family of Phoenixville, PA, says the Association of Mature American Citizens (AMAC). They were out for a seafood dinner and dad, Scott, was enjoying an order of northern quahog clams when he got quite a surprise; one of those tasty mollusks came with a bonus—a pretty but rare purple pearl. Scott said he thought he'd "bit down on a piece of shell or something." Like many of us, he thought pearls were only found in oysters. However, shellfish expert Tim Parsons says they are also found in clams and not as rare as you might think. He says diners report findings two or three times a year. How much is it worth? It's anybody's guess, but surely it can bring in three, four or five hundred dollars or more.

Ask Rusty - Military Wife Turning 65 Seeks Information about Medicare

Dear Rusty: My husband is 63 and I will be 65 in a few months. He's retired from the Air Force, so we currently have Tricare Select. As I understand it, I only need to sign up for Medicare Part B, which I think I can do now. Can I do this online, or do I need to go somewhere to enroll? And how do I find the cost? We also currently are enrolled in and pay for FEDVIP for our dental and vision. Is vision handled under Medicare? All our adult life we've just used Air Force bases and now we have to pay attention and we don't know where to start.

Dear Military Wife: First, please extend my gratitude to your husband for his military service. I'm happy to assist you with your questions.

With few exceptions (mainly those on active duty and military reservists) TriCare requires that you enroll in Medicare Part B as soon as you are eligible (age 65) to retain your Tricare coverage.

BBB Scam Alert: Instagram Users Fall for Phony Offers and Deals from Brands

If you are active on Instagram, watch out for this popular con. Phony companies are reaching out to users and offering them perks in exchange for posting product pictures. These "brand ambassadors" just end up losing money.

How the scam works:

A "company" contacts you through your social media account or blog. They want to know if you would be interested in becoming a "brand ambassador." It sounds like a great gig. All you need to do is post photos of yourself using their product. In exchange, the company will give you a commission, send free products and provide exposure for your account.

You are eager to get started, but there's a catch! According to BBB Scam Tracker, several victims reported first having to buy items, anything from sunglasses to jewelry to cosmetics. These cost $50 or more and arrived broken.

Other times, the scammer charged victims upfront for a "background check." No matter how the scam works, the outcome was the same. Victims paid upfront, but the promise of commission or exposure never materialized.

Here's What You Need to Know About Heel Pain

(StatePoint) Very common in adults and on the rise in children, heel pain continues to be the number one reason patients seek care from foot and ankle surgeons. While experts say there are many reasons for heel pain, including bursitis, Achilles tendonitis, bone bruises, fractures, growth spurts and nerve pain, the most common cause is plantar fasciitis, a condition that one in 10 people will suffer from in their lifetime.

Veterans Day Parade Set for Downtown This Year

For the first time in a while, Montgomery County veterans organizations are teaming together to organize a Veterans Day parade.

According to VFW Commander Gary Bell, this year's event will take place on Nov. 11, and will be the product of a joint effort between the Disabled American Veterans, the American Legion and the VFW.

"We'll have the service at 11 o'clock at the Marie Canine Plaza and then we'll start the parade right after," Bell told The Paper. "We want to get the community involved. We'd like to see the downtown merchants paint their windows with a patriotic theme and we'd like to get others involved, too."

Bell said that if a group or organization wants to put a float or an entry in the parade, they

Mayor Barton to Continue with Industrial Relationship Cultivation

Mayor Todd Barton recently visited the headquarters property of AMERICAN Cast Iron Pipe Company (AMERICAN) in Birmingham, Alabama to continue building city relations with our local industrial partner last week.

Barton spent a full day meeting with company officials and visiting the foundry area of the factory, where metals are melted down to be cast for production.

"The purpose of these visits is to continue to expand AMERICAN's understanding of the city's support for their local facility and communicate our readiness for economic expansion," Barton said. "I wanted to go down to AMERICAN's headquarters and thank them for investing in us. We are lucky to have a great partnership with them, and we are aware of the importance of partnerships like these that

Laura Drake

July 31, 2022 - October 30, 1953

Laura Drake, Associate Professor of Industrial Design at Purdue University, passed away on July 31, 2022 following complications from a bone marrow transplant received earlier this summer and a long struggle with cancer.

She was born on October 30, 1953 in Bellaire, Michigan, the second of five children of Mary and Allen Johnson.

Mrs. Drake was a 1972 graduate of Crawfordsville High School. She held a BA degree from Herron School of Art, IUPUI, an MFA degree from the Southern Illinois University at Carbondale and an MA from Purdue University.

Her career spanned more than four decades. Her early work in small sculptures using telephone wire and papier-mâché spawned an interest in sculptural furniture design while in New York. She exhibited often at Art et Industrie starting in the early 1980's as a solo artist and in collaborative pieces with her first husband Terence Main as Main + Main.

Returning to the Midwest in her late 20's where she met and married her second husband, Kevin Drake, Mrs. Drake pursued an interest in casting metals and a degree at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. In the early 1990's she began teaching at Purdue in the School of Design and found an environment that supported her interest in making beautiful objects and teaching students.

Over the years, she worked with hundreds of design students and often traveled throughout the world with them to shows and exhibitions. Mrs. Drake took great joy in her student's accomplishments both at Purdue and, later, as they launched and grew their own careers in the field of design.

Her recent exhibitions include the Yodex Exhibit in Taipei, Taiwan; the International Contemporary Furniture Fair at the Jacob Javits Center in New York, NY; the Neocon World's Trade Fair at the Merchandise Mart in Chicago; BECA Gallery in New Orleans, LA; the Fine Furnishings Show in Milwaukee, WI; and exhibits affiliated with the Chicago Furniture Designers Association. Mrs. Drake's work which received numerous awards over the years is held in both private and public museum collections including a piece acquired in 1994 by the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

Her curious mind, optimistic spirit and brave approach to life will be missed by family, friends, and colleagues who loved her. All we can think to say is "well, just keep sanding".

Survivors include her husband Kevin Drake; daughter Courtney Bannister (Thomas); six grandchildren Ethan, Roslyn, Penelope, Olivia, Vivian and Kora; four siblings Allen Johnson (Rose) of Greenwood, Indiana, Nora Smith of Philomath, Oregon, Robert Johnson (Anita) of Jacksonville Beach, Florida and Rebecca Johnson (Neal Finkelstein) of New York, New York.

She was preceded in death by her parents; maternal grandparents Opal and Robert Early; and paternal grandparents Helen and Walter Johnson.

A memorial service is planned for Saturday, October 29, 2022. Details to follow.

Memories of Laura can be shared at <https://www.mykeeper.com/profile/LauraDrake/>. Updates to plans for the memorial service will also be posted to this site.

Donations in memory of Laura may be made to the Reuff School of Design at Purdue, <https://www.cla.purdue.edu/academic/rueffschool/index.html>

FEMA Reminds Property Owners to Prepare for Disasters for National Preparedness Month

FEMA

This year the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is urging home and business owners to think of disaster preparedness to help protect their families and the legacies they have worked so hard to create. FEMA designates each Sept. as National Preparedness Month, a time to prepare or review your family and business emergency plans for surviving and then managing the aftermath of an unexpected disaster.

"As a leader in fire and water cleanup and restoration services, mold mitigation, and storm response, SERVPRO understands the importance of preparation before disaster strikes," said Rick Isaacson, CEO of Servpro Industries, LLC.

"SERVPRO employs a full-time meteorologist and uses a cutting-edge geographic information system to provide each SERVPRO franchise with real-time, location-based insight on where storms are likely to hit and what kind of damage they could inflict. Since time is of the essence in limiting or preventing damage to properties after a flood, this advance, predictive intelligence can accelerate response time, making the difference between an inconvenience and a total loss for our SERVPRO customers."

The U.S. Financial and Banking Information Infrastructure Committee (FBIIC) states that flooding is the nation's most frequent and costly natural disaster, representing 90% of all natural disasters in the U.S. FBIIC adds that you don't need to be in a high-risk, flood prone area to be affected. Nearly 25% of flood insurance claims come from moderate-to-low risk areas.

"While you can't predict when a natural disaster will strike or what shape that disaster will take, you can prepare to minimize its effects on your home, your family, and your life," said Isaacson.

FEMA offers a variety of no-cost tools to help you evaluate your risk, create a communication plan, sign up for alerts, put together an emergency kit customized to your family's needs, protect important documents, and more.

In addition to following FEMA's guidelines on disaster readiness, SERVPRO professionals in the Noblesville area encourage property owners to consider using the SERVPRO READY app4 to store essential contact and property information electronically where it can be accessed in seconds with a mobile device.

"This is a no-cost tool available to all homeowners," these professionals explain, "but local business owners who designate their local SERVPRO as their disaster mitigation and restoration provider will also benefit from a no-cost assessment of their facility along with help completing a comprehensive Emergency READY Profile (ERP) to be stored in the READY app."

For more information on SERVPRO and the SERVPRO Emergency READY Program, please visit www.servpro.com.

If you're already collecting Social Security, you'll be automatically enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B at age 65 and won't need to do a separate enrollment. If not, enrolling can be easily done online by going to this link: www.ssa.gov/benefits/medicare/. Here you'll see an explanation of how Medicare works, and you can scroll down to the "Apply for Medicare Only" tab to start your application. You will need to first have your personal "my Social Security" online account set up to apply online for Medicare, which is easy to do at www.ssa.gov/myaccount. You should enroll in Medicare during your Initial Enrollment Period (IEP) which starts 3 months before the month you turn 65 and ends three months after the month you turn 65. So, if you are within 3 months of age 65 you can enroll in Medicare now and your coverage will start in the month you turn 65. Your Medicare coverage will start on the first of the month you turn 65, even if your birthday isn't until later in the month. If you have any trouble enrolling in Medicare online, you can call Social Security at 1.800.772.1213 to enroll in Medicare.

It's important to understand Medicare's various "parts." Medicare Part A is coverage for inpatient hospitalization services and is free for anyone who is also eligible for Social Security (you don't need to be collecting SS, only eligible to). Medicare Part B is coverage for outpatient medical services (e.g., doctors, tests, etc.) and there is a monthly premium associated with Part B. The 2022 Part B premium is $170.10 per month and, unless you're on Social Security, you'll make arrangements when you enroll in Medicare to pay those premiums separately, usually quarterly. If you're already collecting Social Security, the Medicare Part B premium will be deducted from your monthly SS payment. When your Medicare coverage starts, Medicare will become the primary payor of your healthcare expenses and TriCare will become secondary payor.

Medicare Part C is an "Advantage" plan obtained through a private insurer and used instead of Part A and Part B. Medicare also has a Part D which is for prescription drug coverage, and which you probably won't need because TriCare likely covers any prescription drug needs you may have.

Medicare Part B does not provide routine dental services, and only provides very limited vision services (screenings for glaucoma, diabetic retinopathy, and screening for and treatment of macular degeneration), but routine eye screenings, contacts, eyeglasses, and frames, etc., are not covered. TriCare's vision coverage is also very limited, so if your current FEDVIP is not adequate for your needs, you may wish to explore your options for private dental and vision coverage.

What is Plantar Fasciitis?

Plantar fasciitis is an inflammation of the band of tissue (the plantar fascia) that extends from the heel to the toes in which the fascia becomes irritated and then inflamed. Symptoms include pain on the bottom of the heel, pain in the arch of the foot, and swelling on the bottom of the heel. For many, the pain is worse upon arising and increases over a period of months.

A telltale sign of mechanical issues in the foot, those with overly flat feet or high-arched feet are more prone to developing plantar fasciitis. Lifestyle factors can also play a role. Wearing non-supportive footwear on hard, flat surfaces puts abnormal strain on the plantar fascia. This is particularly evident when one's job requires long hours on the feet. Obesity and overuse may also contribute to plantar fasciitis.

How is it Treated?

"We typically treat plantar fasciitis conservatively, at first," said Michael J. Cornelison, DPM, FACFAS, a foot and ankle surgeon and president of the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons. "This can include a combination of remedies, including rest, exercises that stretch the calf muscles, orthotics, icing the heel, over-the-counter medications like ibuprofen, supportive footwear and physical therapy."

Most patients respond well to conservative treatments. However, depending on the severity of the plantar fasciitis, additional therapies may be required, including:

- Injection Therapy: Growth factor injections and platelet rich plasma injections are used to boost the body's healing response and help repair injured tissue.

- Shockwave Therapy: This in-office treatment uses sound waves delivered over the skin to slightly damage the tissue and stimulate the body's natural repair process. This helps the plantar fasciitis heal and relieves pain symptoms without making an incision. Patients can expect to be up and moving immediately after treatment, but it may take three to six months to see results.

- Ultrasonic Treatment: In this newer procedure, a small incision is made into the heel of the foot and a probe directs ultrasonic energy at the fascia to break down bad tissue and help the healing process. A diagnostic ultrasound tool is used to create an image of the inside of the foot and guide the probe. Patients may need to wear a boot immediately after the procedure for up to two weeks and they can expect to see improvements anywhere from three to six months after the procedure.

- Surgery: Also called a plantar fasciotomy, this minimally invasive, minimally traumatic surgical treatment involves making a small incision through the heel into the damaged tendon to try to lengthen it and relieve tension. Patients tend to recover in six to 10 weeks, but it may take up to three months to resume exercise and more vigorous activities.

No matter what kind of treatment a patient undergoes, the underlying causes that led to the condition may remain. Preventive measures, such as wearing supportive shoes, stretching and using custom orthotic devices, are the mainstay of long-term treatment for plantar fasciitis.

For more heel pain information and to find a foot and ankle surgeon near you, visit FootHealthFacts.org, the patient education website for the American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons.

keep Crawfordsville in the front running for new growth and opportunity in the future."

In 2019, AMERICAN Flow Control, the valve and hydrant division of AMERICAN Cast Iron Pipe Company announced the formation of AMERICAN Innovation, LLC, a company dedicated to research and development.

The company constructed a 30,000-square-foot facility, named the AMERICAN Flow Control Center for Innovative Excellence, in Crawfordsville, Indiana. The site in Crawfordsville was selected due to the variable weather conditions in the area, which is ideal for testing product durability.

AMERICAN Flow

Control develops and manufactures fire hydrants for municipal and industrial fire protection applications, tapping sleeves, hydrant security, remote pressure monitoring technology and more. Other divisions of the company manufacture ductile iron and spiral-welded steel pipe for the waterworks industry and high-frequency-welded steel pipe for the oil and natural gas industries.

The company's diversified product line also includes high-performance fire pumps, structural casing and piling, castings for large machinery and specialty rubber products.

Crawfordsville is home to more than 16,000 residents and is the county

Mayor Todd Barton seat in Montgomery County, Indiana. About an hour west of Indianapolis, the growing city is known for its state and nationally recognized paramedicine program, extensive outdoor recreational opportunities at Shades State Park and Sugar Creek River, and is home to the Ironman Lucas Oil AMA Pro Motocross Championships and Wabash College.
